PREFACE

We are very honoured to welcome the participants to this year's "R.C. R.C.C. EASTER TOURNAMENT".

It is the second time that our club organizes a tournament which will be played on two days and concerns 15-a-side rugby.

We hope that the program and the teams will be of a standard that you have hoped for. Now it is up to you to make the best of it. Fight for the Cup but play fair like a good rugby player.

Of course we have arranged something to eat and to drink for you but the singing will have to come from yourselves.

In advance we thank you for coming to the tournament and we hope to see you next year.

Members of Rugby club R.C.C.

Art. 7. During a game two replacements will be allowed but only in case of injury.

Art. 8. The winning team in a game receives two points and the losing team zero points. If the game is a draw each team will receive one point. Teams having played a game as stated in art. 5.b will receive no points.

Art. 9. If in a preliminary group the total points at the end of the first round are equal the highest total of scored points determines the winner. If these scores are also equal the result of the game between these two teams will determine the winner.

Art.10.a In the finals and semi-finals a draw extra time will be played with a maximum of seven minutes. During this period the team that scores first will be declared the winner.

b If after extra time the score is still equal the highest number of scored tries will determine the winner.

c If this does not result in a winner the most converted tries will determine the winner.

d If art.10.c still does not determine a winner each team will take five penalty kicks. The team with the most scores will be the winner. Each kick must be taken by a different player.

Art.11 In cases where these regulations or the regulations of the N.R.B. do not provide a solution the tournament secretary will decide.
